Location of all Saturday events:
University of Vienna, Währinger Strasse 29, 1090 Wien

9:30 am – 11:00 am
Plenary discussion:

Psychoanalysis and University – a long, complex and tense relationship

Since its beginnings, the relationship between Psychoanalysis and the institution University has been a conflictual and tense one. In some phases of the 20th century, psychoanalysis was strongly represented in various disciplines at universities. In recent decades, the development has taken a different direction. However, there are also many regional differences.

The panel discussion will begin with various statements. The panellists will then start a conversation with each other and with other conference participants.

Discussants:

Arnaud Dubois (F), Victor Blüml (AUT), Wilfried Datler (AUT), Bernadette Strobl (AUT)

Chair:

Nestor Kapusta (AUT)

11:00 am – 11.30 am
